Dear Fadden Families

I'll start by congratulating every student and staff member in this spectacular community for 100 days of high achievement, focused engagement, and families and carers for your support of all we do here at school to ensure rich education experiences are had by all. There have been so many highlights in the arts and in sport, group achievements and individual, scientific, cross-cultural and academic. Fadden celebrates every student's success and highly values the influence you have on your child's motivation, engagement, social and emotional wellbeing and academic competence. Thank you for participating in the parent/teacher interviews this week and strengthening the partnership between school and home.

It is a pleasure to work within the Fadden Primary School community and I am excited to continue my work as Deputy Principal with Jennie Lindsay as Principal into term 3. On behalf of the school staff I wish every family a safe and happy holiday! Come back ready to... get, set, go... into the second 100 school days of 2019!

Warmest regards
Cherie Connors
Deputy Principal
